

WeAcademies is pleased to offer its first musical theater class that is structured specifically around the homeschool schedule. Dive into the world of musical theater as we explore songs and dances from Broadway musicals. We will learn about stage acting with activities and improvisation games. This class will work to improve confidence on and off the stage and is sure to be FUN!

This 6-week class will be held on Tuesday mornings for one hour (10am-11am) and will begin September 13. The cost is $90. The class will be taught by Nicole Pearson. Nicole has a musical theater degree from Belmont University, as well as 16 years of experience performing professionally and teaching musical theater classes in the Richmond area.
